Re: General Motors Corp., et al, Debtors

Notice of Sale Hearing to Sell substantially all of Debtors' Assets Pursuant to Master Sale and Purchase Agreement
With Vehicle Acquisition Holdings LLC, A U.S. Treasury-Sponsored Purchase

This letter is to voice an objection to this sale of General Motors assets as recorded in this letter.

There nothing in this sale situation to justify favoring the Auto Union over those creditors who have legal first rights to any assets. In addition the Union bears a large portion of responsibility for the bankruptcy and will continue to demand and receive wage and benefits far in excess of their contribution to the company. It should be easy to see why non Union automotive manufacturers' can out perform on every issue of performance. Most importantly the Union will continue to drag down the company for which we tax payers will have to subsidize. This should not be a political decision but one that is subject to the fairness and equity for the people of this country.

PS; As a private citizen I am not able to understand all the lawyers and others who are to be served and I trust this letter will receive due consideration in spite of my not having any legal expertise. I assume the laws and opportunities in country are for us ordinary citizens and therefore I can be properly heard with this letter.

Thanking you for your prompt attention;
